

IN RECOGNITION OF “SALVATION ARMY WEEK”

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army's priority in the community of Augusta, Georgia, as everywhere, is human service, undertaken with joy for the family of humankind to the greater glory of God; and

WHEREAS, Through capable, resourceful and professional services, The Salvation Army serves the people of Augusta and the CSRA with unshakable faith in all cases, no matter how desperate the situation, and views all people as citizens with value; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army acts on behalf of all the residents of our community, without prerequisite, nor expectation of thanks, yet nonetheless welcoming community support.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Young, Mayor of Augusta, do proclaim the week of May 12 through 18, 2003 as “SALVATION ARMY WEEK”, and urge all citizens to join me in saluting the steadfast men and women whose faithful service renews the hearts of the community.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Augusta, Georgia to be affixed this 12th day of May 2003.
